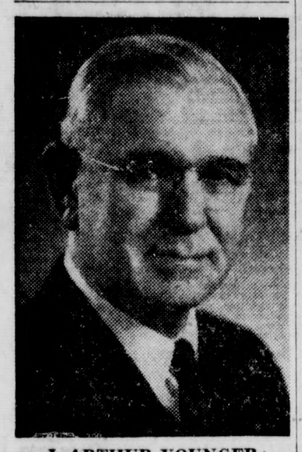
Fitzgerald Wins Supervisor Job In Closest Race

Although he gained ground via 8158 absentee ballots (3412 to 2868), Colma's Thomas J. Callan Sr. lost in his re-election bid last week to San Bruno's Jim Fitzgerald in one of the closest and toughest races in San Mateo County history.

With all but 673 absentee ballots counted, Fitzgerald won the First District supervisor job — a four-year assignment — by a slim margin of 1271 votes.

Fitzgerald had 91,231 and Callan 89,960.

Before the absentee ballots were tallied, Fitzgerald led Callan, 78,363 to 76,548—a margin of 1815. This razor-thin outcome focused intense concern on the absentee tallies, and Callan as expected, got the most of these—but not enough.



J. ARTHUR YOUNGER
... triumphs again

Sixty-nine years old, Callan today commented: "The people made their decision and I respect their judgment. This was a close campaign and I worked very hard. The past eight years I have attempted to serve the people of San Mateo County to the best of my ability. I want to thank each and everyone of those who supported me.

TOM CALLAN SR.

"I think it's time I devote more of myself to my wife and family and especially my grandchildren. Of course, I have a lot of business to catch up on, and I will by no means go out to pasture."

The former hog rancher and largest property owner in the county said he would continue his interest in county affairs. He said he wished supervisor-elect Fitzgerald "the best of success."

Last week's Callan-Fitzgerald duel matched the June primary for closeness. Fitzgerald defeated Callan in the primary by 2740 votes—48,036-45,296.

All county press media attributed Callan's loss last week to the north end controversy over his son's proposed Callan Park development. The veteran county supervisor throughout his campaign insisted that he had no special interest in Callan Park and that this issue (defeated at the polls by Daly City voters) should have nothing to do with the supervisor race.

Callan's loss last week featured victory for Fitzgerald in Daly City and South San Francisco by convincing margins. Daly City gave Fitzgerald 10,037 votes and Callan only 6018. South San Francisco balloted 7227 to 4967 in favor of Fitzgerald.

Pacifica gave the edge to Callan, 3098 to 3037.

McKeon Gains Freeway Delay

McKeon Corporation was granted a "final" extension by Daly City councilmen Monday night in the builder's attempt to have the state modify the east-west freeway lateral through St. Francis Heights.

The council was scheduled to pass its final resolution on the entire Daly City freeway network, but George McKeon said a meeting between him and the State Division of Highways, scheduled last week, did not materialize, and that the session would be held this Wednesday.

The council and attorney Chester Lebsack of Doelger Corporation questioned whether the state would change its mind and approve McKeon's request to move the freeway south of St. Francis Heights and the Christopher Columbus School site at St. Francis boulevard-Skyline.

McKeon conceded that this Wednesday's meeting with the state would "decide the issue once and for all" and asked the council to forward a letter to the Highway Division "reiterating that you would prefer to have the freeway lateral go over undeveloped property."

McKeon said his firm was not attempting to re-open the en-

20-Year Water Pact With S.F.

A 20-year contract with San Francisco for unlimited amounts of water for Daly City usage was approved by councilmen Monday night.

The pact matches similar SF agreements with other cities on rates and assures Daly City of an adequate supply in the years ahead when existing water sources here virtually will be depleted.

City Manager Edward Frank and City Engineer Bill Chapman were satisfied with the contract. Councilmen agreed it was a logical step to accommodate Daly City's growing population.

Chapman favored the "unlimited" amount of water clause, noting that while Daly City is using less than 15 percent of outside water "someday almost all of our water will have to come from San Francisco because our present water potential is limited and the cost of new transmission lines to us would be prohibitive."

Beginning last fiscal year, the Daly City council launched a five-year water improvement program, supplemented by a voluminous $30,000 survey showing deficiencies and recommending improvements on a timetabled schedule.

It is anticipated that higher water rates will be advocated by the council next year. Daly City's basic rate hasn't been increased for almost 40 years and currently is the lowest on the Peninsula.

DALY CITY police officer Steve Steen will appeal a 30-day suspension in a hearing before the personnel board this month. Steen was reprimanded for allowing his wife to ride in his squad car during a reckless driver chase that ended in a smashup.. on.. Junipero.. Serra. The 33-year-old officer claims he was authorized to have his wife in the car and that his decision to pursue the vehicle was sound judgment.

'Compromise' Arrangement

PENNY LEVY GOES INTO EFFECT IN JANUARY; HEARING NEXT WEEK

Supervisors Tuesday approved a county-wide penny sales tax, 5 percent of which will go from the cities to the county for capital outlay buildings, and set Tuesday, November 22, at 10 a.m. in Redwood City for public hearing on the proposal.

The county earlier had sought 10 percent from the cities, but the 11 non-sales tax cities out of 16 are standing pat on the 5 percent limit. County Manager Bob Stalling had sought an additional five percent for city-county road improvements.

If supervisors officially adopt county-wide sales tax next week, the levy would go into effect 30 days thereafter.

The county expects to raise approximately $1,250,000 a year from the levy — all this money going for capital improvements.

Mayor Pacelli of Daly City last week in a mayors-supervisors meeting in Burlingame suggested a city-county matching funds program for utilizing sales tax funds for major road improvements. Under this proposal, a city could ask the county to match its expenditures on a particular project, thus both the city and county would benefit and would be spared the high cost of financing the project individually.

Daly City's five percent limitation for the county was prescribed three years ago when the council took the initiative and adopted a municipal sales and use tax. Most of the non-sales tax cities, aware that county-wide sales tax was inevitable, anticipated the supervisors' action this year and finally are agreeable to the "compromise" five percent.

Lower Rates?

City Gets OK On New Fire Survey

City Manager Edward Frank declared today that a new survey which could lead to lower fire insurance rates for Daly City is expected next spring.

His optimism followed recent fire insurance rate reductions in 21 Bay Area districts—mostly smaller communities.

Frank and Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy have engaged in many recent conferences with representatives of the National Board of Fire Underwriters. Both are confident improvements made the past year in the fire department will allow a reduction in Daly City's fire classification.

Present category for DC is Class 6, upped from Class 4 two years ago by the national board — a move that prompted considerable protests by the city council and chamber of commerce.

Since the higher rate was effected early last year, Kennedy's department has acquired a new fire station, two new 1250 gallons per minute pumper trucks, seven more firemen, and additional equipment. If these are taken into account by the national board, Daly City's rate will drop at least one step and save homeowners and businessmen money.

The November 1 rate reductions, authorized by the Pacific Fire Rating Bureau, reduced premiums on thousands of one and two-family dwellings — some by as much as 50 percent. Forty-seven Northern California cities or fire districts were affected as were 65 districts in Southern California.

According to the National Board of Fire Underwriters grading, the higher numbered rate classes have the lesser protection while the lower classifications have better fire protection. The downtown area in a multi-class city almost always has the lower classification rating.

Only three San Mateo County cities—Millbrae, San Carlos and Half Moon Bay—received reductions in the November 1 authorizations.

MAIN LIBRARY OPENS DOORS ON SOUTHGATE

Daly City's $200,000-plus new main library at 275 Southgate avenue opened for business Tuesday morning.

Samuel Chandler, city librarian, said 25 percent of the necessary furniture still hasn't arrived, "but residents are anxious to use the library and we're opening it this week."

Chandler said an open house and grand opening date would be set by the Library Commission within the next two weeks.

The overdue furniture mainly is for the office and some are study tables, but there is adequate seating capacity at present.

Chandler said the new facility has 7500 books and 5000 more are on order.

Both the new library and the Mission street branch are open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.

The main library, designed by Westlake resident John Cloe, is considered one of the Bay Area's finest, according to Peninsula observers.

Tavern Owner Asks Return Of Parking Meters On Hillcrest

Councilmen took under study bar owner George Kirchhubel's request Monday night that parking meters be returned on Hillcrest drive fronting his establishment.

Yellow Cab has been allowed use of the area as a parking site, but Kirchhubel wants the arrangement discontinued and the meters returned.

The council referred the matter to its traffic committee.

Return of the meters, as requested, is expected, and Councilman Bob St. Clair commented: "There's no reason why we should be against Kirchhubel's request—the meters bring money to the city."

Trustees Okay Plans For Jefferson Gym, $1,200,000 Addition

Trustees approved architects' plans Monday night for the $360,000 gymnasium renovation and $1,200,000 in new classroom construction at 40-year-old Jefferson High on Mission street.

Mario Ciampi's plans for the gym work, scheduled to begin next summer and requiring 12 months, will go to the State Division of Architecture within a week. Allocations Board approval will be requested in February or March next year.

Falk and Booth's site plan for the new Jeff building, a two-story structure west of the cafeteria and south of the baseball diamond, met with board approval. This building, to be erected at no inconvenience to students in the older buildings, will have 23 classrooms, five science labs, three business education rooms, an art room and a crafts room, music room, a library and administrative offices.

This project includes renovation of the three shops. The auto shop will be enlarged and divided into two areas, while the woodshop and metal shop will be rebuilt.

The baseball diamond will be shifted west of its present locale once the new building is operational.

The district will make application for the $1,200,000 Jeff project simultaneously with the gym request. Completion date on the new building is December of 1962, and the older structures will be demolished.

Trustees also approved Ciampi's site plan for the second increment to Westmoor—due for completion by September of 1962. This project will add eight more classrooms, five new labs, a woodshop, electrical shop, and a mechanical drawing room.

Approval is expected this Friday from the Department of Finance on the Dickman Construction Company's $1,659,717 bid for Oceana High School. Superintendent Edward Morgan estimates construction will begin at the Sharp Park site November 28.

COUNCIL TRANSFERS $50,500 TO MEET BUDGET 'OVERAGE'

Councilmen Monday night adjusted Daly City's fiscal budget by transferring $50,500 from reserve funds to pay for projects that exceeded expectations.

Twelve hundred new water meters will be purchased with $30,000 transferred from the Replacement and Extension Fund. In May this year the city purchased 500 water meters, and the previous high order was 1500 meters, costing $27 each, when George Watts was city manager.

From unbudgeted reserve in the water department was transferred $13,500 (leaving a balance of $8918 there) for the following projects:

$2500 for water meter repair parts, $5500 for a sand separator and additional work on pumping equipment, $3500 for a 14-inch transmission line at Eastmoor and Ocean Grove avenue to improve flow of water from Well No. 12 to Reservoir 5 in the Palisades, and $2000 for accumulated overtime pay in the water department.

Shifted from the general fund unbudgeted reserve was $5950, leaving a balance of $32,300. These appropriations were $2000 for additional corporation yard improvements in the old garage, $150 for emergency repairs to the City Hall heating plant, $1200 for a Civil Defense building (sanitation district plant in Westlake) for new radio equipment, and $2600 for $2000 in overtime pay for the police department, $500 in the building department, and $100 in the engineering department.

From capital outlay unbudgeted reserve the council transferred $950, additional amount needed toward purchase of a three-quarter ton truck for the water department. This leaves a balance of $7805 in capital outlay reserve.

Final transfer was $100 from parks and recreation unbudgeted reserve to pay for overtime in that department. The reserve in this fund now is $4700.

Bank Of America Buys $965,000 In JUHSD Bonds

Bank of America, lowest of five bidders, purchased $965,000 in Jefferson High School District bonds Tuesday at the board of supervisors meeting in Redwood City.

The sale exhausted the local district's 1957 bond issue which totalled $2.9 million.

Bank of America's interest rate was 3.66 compared to the 4.06 rate in February this year when the district sold $500,000 in bonds.

High bidder this week wanted 3.75 percent.

Slogan Deadline Friday Midnight

This Friday midnight (November 18) is the deadline for submitting slogans for Daly City's fiftieth birthday celebration, scheduled in October next year.

Celebration publicity chairman David Willey today named judges for the slogan contest. They are Frank Verducci, elementary school board chairman; Lyal Ingersoll, high school board chairman, and Evelyn Mosman, city clerk of Daly City.

The winner of the slogan contest will get a $50 U. S. Savings Bond.

What kind of a slogan?

One that will keynote and help publicize 50 years of Daly City progress.

Entries should be addressed to: "Contest, City Hall, 75 Wellington avenue, Daly City."

More than 50 residents have mailed entries thus far. Remember, Friday midnight is the final deadline!

WILL THERE BE ENOUGH MONEY?

Fiftieth Anniversary Committee Postpones Event To Next October

Daly City won't stage its 50th birthday celebration until next October, committee chairmen and councilmen voted Tuesday night in a "let's get rolling" meeting at City Hall.

Chairman Arthur Bodien, Mayor Frank Pacelli and Councilmen Joseph Verducci and Bob St. Clair suggested changing the celebration from mid-May to fall because the arrangements will take considerable time and the matter of how much the group will have available to spend hasn't been resolved.

Pacelli stressed: "There will have to be a lot of hard work by the committee heads and participation by all the residents of Daly City if we are to have a good celebration."

Verducci seconded this thought and pointed out that though the council is behind the project 100 percent, "the community must help, too, and money must be raised to supplement what the council will contribute."

The four councilmen (Michael DeBernardi was absent via illness) agreed that an experienced coordinator should be hired at minimal cost to plan and supervise the week-long event.

Verducci, City Manager Edward Frank and the council have discussed the matter with Dr. Fenton McKenna, head of the creative arts department at San Francisco State College, a

Protestants Tell Thanksgiving Day Special Worship Service Schedule

Protestants throughout the San Francisco area will hold special services of worship and praise for the Thanksgiving holiday eve or morning.

Two such services will be held in Daly City. The Daly City Ministerial Association will hold a service for Protestants. Broadmoor Nazarene Church, Edgeworth and Washington streets, will be the host parish for the worship hour at 10 a.m. Thanksgiving Day. Another service in Westlake will be held in Westlake Baptist Church, Southgate at Elmwood, at the same time.

Many neighboring congregations will worship together. Worshipping with the congregation of Temple Baptist Church, 3355 19th avenue, will be members of Temple Methodist and Lakeside Presbyterian churches. The Rev. Dr. Clark Neale Edwards of the Presbyterian church will preach.

West Side Christian Church, 2525 Bush street, will host the congregations of Calvary Presbyterian, First Presbyterian and First Methodist churches on Thanksgiving Day at 10 a.m., and at the same time two downtown churches, Glide Methodist and First Congregational, will meet together at the Congregational church, Post and Mason streets.

Another neighborhood service will unite the congregations of Sunset, Parkside and St. Francis' Methodist Churches at the Parkside Church, 2540 Taraval, on Thursday at 10 a.m. The Rev. Alfred Dale, pastor of St. Francis, will give the sermon.

The offering from some of the services will be donated to Church World Service to be used for food and clothing for the needy overseas.

TUNNEL LOWERED

In converting the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge to one-way traffic, the roadway through the Yerba Buena Island tunnel must be lowered 16 inches to accommodate trucks, reports the California State Automobile Association.

'Wasn't Aware The Cops Were Chasing Me'

Two Daly City patrol cars climaxed a spirited chase of a Volkswagen sedan Thursday at 2 a.m. by halting 24-year-old William John Duke of Parkmerced and booking him for speeding, failure to heed their red lights and sirens, and reckless driving.

Duke, 1701 Holloway avenue, passed a sobriety test at Junipero Serra Hospital as the examining doctor pronounced him a "borderline" case.

Besides the Daly City tickets, the young man about an hour earlier had been ticketed by South San Francisco police.

Sgt. Jerry Galindo initiated pursuit of Duke's foreign car at Westlake avenue-Junipero Serra after SSF police reported a speeder on Junipero Serra going north into Daly City. The sergeant used his vehicle's red light and siren, but Duke sped on, turning onto Brotherhood Way, then north on Chumasero drive and into Parkmerced. Galindo lost him on Garces drive, then radioed patroling Jim Bergstrom. A few blocks later, Bergstrom forced Duke to halt at Serrano and Font boulevard.

The Volkswagen man's only comment was that he hadn't heard the sirens nor seen the red lights.

Galindo and Bergstrom, however, were certain that Duke was a bit confused.

Freeway Delay

tire freeway issue . . . "just a portion that could be moved south out of Daly City and not interfere with Daly City homes."

The Doelger attorney, however, said that additional delays would re-open the freeway issue, disrupt Doelger plans for the Skyline interchange, and hamper boundary negotiations with San Bruno involving Doelger land earmarked for construction.

Lebsack said Doelger's firm had taken a neutral stand during the ctiy's freeway discussions, "but McKeon's proposal makes us change our position substantially and we protest any additional delay by the council in finalizing the freeway agreement with the state."

Last month at McKeon's request the council held off a final vote on the freeway agreement to allow him to discuss the modification with the state. At that time, the council unanimously ruled that any changes to the city-approved route would have to come from the state.

McKeon Monday night again admitted the state's reaction to this modification had been adverse, but he feels this week's meeting in Sacramento "in which we will present engineering data to show the advantages of the modification" may meet state approval.

Councilman Bob St. Clair drew a round of applause from the audience when he backed McKeon by declaring: "Our obligation is to Daly City taxpayers, and if the state prefers to shift the lateral out of Daly City then we should have no objection."

Two residents of St. Francis Heights also spoke in favor of shifting the lateral south.

The Doelger attorney doubted the state would change its mind, citing a letter dated November 2 from J. P. Sinclair, state highway district chief in San Francisco, indicating McKeon's proposal had been analyzed and did not merit state approval.

The council climaxed Monday's discussion by granting McKeon a final delay. The builder said he would accept Wednesday's decision in Sacramento and would apprise the council immediately of the state's judgment.

Budget Transfers

recommending the transfers noted: "There is strict adherence maintained by all departments to the budget, and the financial situation is definitely much better than in the past fiscal years. The above additions of appropriations do not reflect non-adherence to the budget, but merely are needed as additional amounts which are necessary for our increased program activity over and above the original budget."

Councilman Joseph Verducci complimented the administrative staff on the budget report and particularly on the water department projects.

Following the lead last week of Jefferson Elementary District, high school trustees this week officially authorized the bond election next February 7.

The elementary district seeks "yes" on $2.8 million in bonds and a $7 million state loan. The high school district's proposal is $4 million bonds and $1.5 million from the state.

Smallest reduction in straight fire coverage came in Stockton with a three-year saving of $3.78 on the same insurance coverage. The savings on straight fire protection in all other California areas ranged between these two examples.

Accountant Booked For Drunk Driving At Skyline-Alemany

A San Francisco accountant was arrested by Daly City police Wednesday night last week for drunk driving in Westlake.

Phillip J. McCarthy, 43, who lives at 1529 Dolores street, flunked a sobriety test at Junipero Serra Hospital and admitted having a few drinks.

His sedan was observed at 10:52 p.m. speeding west on Alemany from Eastgate by Officer Jim Sunderland who halted him at the Skyline intersection.

Released on $525 bail, McCarthy is due in municipal court this Thursday.

gerald won in Redwood City, 8528 to 7433.

The county turnout for Tuesday's showdowns neared 90 per cent, the best in history.

Vice President Richard Nixon defeated Senator John F. Kennedy in San Mateo County, 98,605 to 94,129, a tally that does not include the absentees.

Daly City voters gave Kennedy a wide margin, 11,683 to 7615 for Nixon. Kennedy was ahead in South San Francisco, 9982 to 5307, and in Pacifica, 4755 to 2716.

Demo Dr. John Kaster, unsuccessful in his attempt to unseat 9th District Congressman J. Arthur Younger, won in Daly City, 9852 to 8950; in South San Francisco, 8320 to 6617, and in Pacifica, 4000 to 333.

Louis Francis, re-elected 25th District Assemblyman, edged Demo rival Robert Hardgrove in Daly City, 9238 to 9003, but lost to Hardgrove in South SF, 7596 to 7050, and in Pacifica, 3852 to 305.

Demo William Gately, loser against State Senator Richard Dolwig, led Dolwig in Daly City, 19,093 to 8177; in South SF, 8418 to 6180, and in Pacifica, 4263 to 2898.

Menlo Park's Jim O'Keefe, heavy victor for superior court judge, defeated Louis Wexler of Millbrae in Daly City, 9898 to 5596; in South SF, 7392 to 5207, and in Pacifica, 3744 to 2386.

Broadmoor balloting found 901 for Callan to 697 for Fitzgerald, and a 1005 to 854 edge for Kennedy over Nixon. Town of Colma favored Callan, 81 to 57, and Kennedy, 79 to 76.

Colma favored Younger, 814 to 75; Francis over Hardgrove, 87 to 59; Dolwig over Gately, 78 to 64, and O'Keefe over Wexler, 92-44.

Broadmoor victors were Younger, 942 to 860; Francis, 986 to 197; Dolwig, 900 to 861, and O'Keefe, 918 to 521.

specialist in handling community pageants and celebrations.

Verducci said the SF State a capella choir, band and symphony orchestra, as well as drama students would be willing to participate during Daly City's event — perhaps staging several performances at different sites here.

October was preferred by the majority Tuesday because they claim the weather will be better and the planning is no overnight project. Only objections were raised by golf tourney chairman Pete Markovich of the Chamber of Commerce and A. J. Lemos, chairman of the garden show. Markovich felt May would be more appropriate because it would be close to the actual 50th birthday date — March 11. Lemos explained there would be more flowers in May than October.

Pacelli suggested bi-monthly meetings of the executive committee, starting December 6 at 7:30 a.m. at Westlake Bowl, to resolve the coordinator proposal, finalize the cost estimates, and then follow through in the planning right up to October.

How much the committee is willing to spend holds the answer to the scope of the celebration. The city manager noted that Petaluma's 100th birthday celebration in 1958 cost $22,000. Verducci said Vallejo's recent birthday event required $100,000.

Councilmen agreed the city doesn't have that kind of money and certainly shouldn't pick up the entire tab.

Markovich noted that certain events wouldn't cost any money particularly the golf tourney and the Chamber-handled queen contest, and Councilman Edward Dennis and band director George Brenner pledged that the unions would cooperate to the hilt, keeping costs down.

Funds, however, must be considerable for publicity, stage props, trophies and professional assistance.

All in attendance concurred that money is the main factor.

The council has set aside only $1000 in its present budget for the celebration. More money will be appropriated next fiscal year, starting in July.

Verducci finalized the session with the comment: "It's nice to talk about a big celebration, but if we want one to be proud of, we've got to raise the money and enlist full community participation."

Turnout for Tuesday's meeting was exceptional. At least the committee chairmen and council are enthusiastic.

The question remains — will the community get behind them?

D.C. Police Dept. Warns Potential Victims Of Fraud

The victims in a recent case involving the passing of phony checks have brought to light a racket which has spread throughout the Bay Area during past months.

In early October of this year Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kachur of 281 Westridge avenue, Daly City, placed a notice in a local newspaper, advertising their food freezer for sale. The ad was answered by a couple who described themselves as newly-wed and in the market for some good used furniture and kitchen appliances. The couple, now suspects in the case, agreed on the owners' sales price of $275 and on October 15 arrived at the Kachur home to complete the transaction.

Mr. Kachur reports that, prior to making out the check, the male member of the duo seemed eager to show him some identification but that he, Kachur, declined to view it. While negotiating, Kachur observed, the female partner referred to her husband as "Danny."

After the check was made out the suspects left and later returned with an orange-colored van. The van, which bore no markings, was reportedly "full of furniture." The couple drove off with Mr. and Mrs. Kachur's food freezer and have not been seen or heard from since. Later, when Kachur attempted to cash the check, it was learned the suspects had no bank account.

Officer James Welsh of the Daly City Police Department reports that the same pair have been operating in northern San Mateo County for some time and that similar occurances are becoming chronic all through the Bay Area. He warns the public to exercise extreme caution when dealing with private parties who respond to their for-sale classified ads and who refuse to pay in cash; or, if by check, can provide no positive evidence of their credit status at a bank. Officer Welsh points out that the success of these operators can be attributed to their humble manner and ability to contrive a convincing sob story. Many can be identified by their unnatural willingness to show identification.

Income Tax Facts: Keep Accurate Record Of Your Daily Finances

(Editor's Note: These pointers on income tax are provided as a public service by the Society of California Accountants).

We have to live with taxes every day of our lives and if we want to pay only our share we must keep accurate records of our finances and so shape our daily lives to produce the lowest tax result. Judge Learned Hand expressed it so well when he said, "Over and over again courts have said that there is nothing sinister in so arranging one's affairs as to keep taxes as low as possible. Everyone does so, rich or poor; and all do right, for nobody owes any public duty to pay more than the law demands: taxes are enforced exactions, not voluntary contributions. To demand more in the name of morals is mere cant."

There may be some things that you should do now, before the end of 1960, that could make a big difference in the tax you will have to pay, or the refund that you will receive, in 1961. For instance, madical expenses present great opportunities for switching expense from one year to another.

Medical expenses are deductible to the extent they exceed 3% of your adjusted gross income, but not more than $2,500 per personal exemption and not more than $5,000 on a separate return or more than $10,000 on a joint or head of household return. Exemptions for old age and blindness do not count. If you or your spouse are over 65 years old the 3% provision does not apply to you and if you or your spouse are over 65 years old and disabled, the maximum deduction is increased to $15,000 and if you are both over 65 years old and both disabled the maximum deduction is increased to $30,000, but not more than $15,000 per individual.

Also, this 3% exclusion does not apply to medical expenses paid for you or your spouses's dependent parents, over 65 years old.

Now suppose that you have large unpaid medical expenses this year and will have even more in 1961. Do not pay any of these this year. Wait until 1961 and pay them all in that year. This way you will have the advantage of the full deduction instead of losing 3% of your income this year as well as 3% of your income for 1961. This works the other way too.

Suppose you have paid medical expense of over 3% of your adjusted gross income and will have a deduction for 1960 and you still owe medical bills which you plan to pay in 1961. If you pay those bills before the end of the year they will be a deduction this year. You won't have to use them to make up 3% of your adjusted gross income for 1961 before you can start deducting again. If you do not have funds readily available it might be wise to borrow the money.

Let's see how that would work. Suppose you borrow $1000 from a bank and repay in twelve monthly installments. Your cost for such a loan would be about $70. Now suppose you take this $1000 and pay deductible bills with it. If you are paying taxes at the lowest rate, you will save $200. Your net profit on the transaction will be about $130.

Remember too, that any interest paid on borrowed money will become a deduction in the year it is paid.

These columns are intended to help you in a general way, to give you the answers to the most often asked questions about income and deductions and to point out the tax saving possibilities that may be open to you. If you have a specific problem you should consult the public accountant of your choice as early as possible.

Colma Woman Seeks Missing White Cat

Dear Editor:

On Thursday, November 4, our little six-month-old white female cat vanished completely from our home. We had waited for almost a year to get a white cat. At the time she was brought to us from San Francisco by a friend she weighed less than a pound and fed her with a medicine dropper. At six months she was a beautiful animal and frolicked with the black cocker dog we have.

Why would anyone shut up a cat and not allow her to return home when there are numerous cats who would just love to be adopted as we adopted this little kitten?

State's Assessed Valuation Climbs 7.8 Percent; Totals $29.6 Billion

SACRAMENTO — The state of California's total net assessed valuation for the 1960-61 fiscal year is $29,600,924,411.

This was disclosed in the annual report on the counties' assessed valuation and tax rates issued by the office of State Controller Alan Cranston.

The total, Cranston said, is 7.87 per cent higher than that of a year ago.

Cranston said the gross valuation amounted to $31,155,815,591, that figure consisting of land valued at $8,858,957,800, improvements on land valued at $16,176,469,194, and personal property valued at $6,120,388,597.

From the gross, Cranston said, was subtracted exemptions of $1,554,891,180 granted to veterans, churches, colleges, and welfare organizations. Exemptions constituted approximately 5 per cent of the gross.

Los Angeles County passed the $11 billion level, its net assessed valuation for 1960-61 amounted to $11,688,344,335.

Five other counties have valuations exceeding $1 billion: San Diego, $1,542,586,670. San Francisco, $1,435,560,989. Alameda, $1,434,765,713. Orange, $1,271,871,200. Santa Clara, $1,266,359,970.

Two counties recorded a decrease in valuation; Alpine, down $81,464 to a total of $2,471,455, and Inyo, down $10,492,735 to a total of $43,349,075. The latter decline reflects a final determination of water rights between Inyo and Los Angeles counties.

The largest percentage increase over 1959-60 levels occurred in El Dorado County, where valuation is up $20,623,925, or 32 per cent, to a total of $84,655,225.

Cranston attributed the El Dorado increase in part to growth, particularly in the Lake Tahoe area, and in part to an expanded valuation program.

Twelfth Annual 'JACKIE' Week Salutes Child Placement Agency

The 12th annual JACKIE Week will be celebrated November 19-26.

JACKIE, Joint Agency Committee for Kiddies — an interdenominational effort, is a volunteer committee for recruiting foster homes for San Francisco children under the care of the four child-placing agencies: Edgewood (Protestant), Catholic Social Service, Homewood Terrace (Jewish), and the Public Welfare Department (nonsectarian).

This volunteer committee for finding foster homes for the dependent and neglected children of the Bay Area was formed in 1949. Its formation was the answer to an urgent need to unify the recruiting programs than being done separately by San Francisco's child-placing agencies.

JACKIE is the first organization of its kind in the world in which all religions and races are united and working together to find foster homes for unfortunate children.

In fulfilling its sole purpose of finding foster homes for dependent children, JACKIE carries on an educational program throughout the year. JACKIE is helping people to learn that: a foster home is a temporary substitute for a child's real home; foster parents can give desperately needed love, understanding and stability; for this the foster parents receive the love and affection of the child, who, but for them, would be homeless; foster parents also receive from the placing agency expenses each month plus medical and dental care; foster children are placed in homes of their own religion.

There are at this time 98 children between infancy and 16 years of age awaiting placement; youngsters who have been deprived of their parents for a number of reasons. Perhaps the child's father is in the armed forces and the mother is ill; or the father has deserted and the mother works. Through no fault of their own, these children are in need of a temporary home until their own parents can care for them.

During these twelve years JACKIE has aided the four child-placing agencies in making placements, but in spite of this 70 new homes are needed each month.

JACKIE is located at 2015 Steiner street; the phone number is WAlnut 1-0665. If you wish to help, call JACKIE, WAlnut 1-0665.

SHRINE COACH, TOO

Sportswriters Name Retiring Verducci 'Coach Of The Year'

Daly City's Joe Verducci was named Northern California "Coach of The Year" by Bay Area sportswriters Monday.

The 50-year-old head coach of San Francisco State College also was appointed to the West coaching staff for the annual East-West game at Kezar next January by Shrine game director Bill Coffman.

Verducci, a member of the Daly City council the past nine years and former mayor here, ends 26 years of head coaching this Saturday when San Francisco State hosts Chico State at Cox Stadium. Joe, who lives in Westlake at 118 Wilshire avenue, is director of athletics at SF State and also will become assistant dean of students.

The sportswriters' honor for Verducci was his fourth in more than a dozen years of coaching college-level athletes. Joe coached high schoolers at old Commerce, High, Washington High and Poly High in San Francisco, Monterey High, then during World War II piloted the Alameda Coast Guard Sea Lions eleven. Before taking over at SF State in 1950, Verducci coached at St. Mary's College in Moraga.

Joe attended SF's Mission High and graduated from University of California at Berkeley.

Verducci's SF State gridders since 1950 have won six Far Western Conference titles and tied for the crown twice. This season, the Gators' only loss was a 21-18 thriller to unbeaten Humboldt State.

The five-member library board now has two vacancies to be filled by council action.

Safecrackers Flunk W'moor High Attempt

One thing that isn't taught at Westmoor High is "safecracking."

Apparently some teenagers gave the profession a try in the wee hours last Thursday morning, but despite having the tools of the trade and knowledge of where to go, they got only $8 from an office drawer.

The culprits, probably juveniles who were familiar with auto shop (from whence their tools came), attempted to cut a hole in the main office safe with an acetylyne torch.

Unsuccessful at the safe, the junior criminals left behind a hacksaw, hammers, a screwdriver and the welding rig.

Police Officer James Bergstrom investigated the incident after getting the word from custodian George Fair. Principal Glenn South said that if Westmoor students were involved, the "word soon would leak out and we'll apprehend those responsible."

Ransacked by the culprits were the principal's office and a book room. Nothing of "higher education" value was reported missing.

It was a "cash or else" job, performed by novices.

Panel Meeting On Health Is Stimulating

Members of Thomas Edison PTA who attended the regular meeting on Thursday, November 10, at the school were stimulated into an interesting discussion following a panel of Jefferson Elementary School District personnel whose topic was "Physical and Emotional Attitudes Affecting Health."

"Health is that quality of life which enables that individual to live the most and serve the best" might serve as a motto for the attitude toward physical and mental health, according to Mrs. Helen Delafield, health coordinator, as she led the panel discussion.

Dennis Huajardo, physical education coordinator, stated the importance of having sound bodies to encompass mental abilities. All have different capabilities, but through physical education, each individual can be encouraged to do the best he can to go as far as he can, to develop the interests which he has now; to learn healthy social attitudes by participating as an individual with a group.

Lowell Jennings, guidance consultant, stressed the importance of a healthy, mature marriage relationship of naturalness and of sharing responsibility and authority as the best environment for creating good mental health of children.

Following the flag salute by Girl Scout Troop 3, Mrs. Joseph Brandi, PTA president, presided over the business meeting of Thomas Edison PTA. Mrs. Arlen Deitsch, parent education chairman, announced that in support of the school bond issue on February 7, chairmen from each block of the school district will call upon parents to acquaint them with the facts of the bond issue. In order to keep up with the growing population and to avoid the necessity for again having double sessions, it is important for all to support this issue, according to Principal Harry Aronson. He also stated that passage of the issue will not increase school taxes.

Jack A. Hurt of the San Francisco Boy Scout Council requested the support of Thomas Edison PTA in sponsoring a Cub Pack in this area. The PTA voted to sponsor a Cub Pack.

Mrs. Richard Bliss has been appointed coordinating chairman to replace Mrs. Carroll Schlichtman who resigned.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by first grade mothers.

Dry Up Those Christmas Parties, Safety Council Urges In Advance

The San Francisco Chapter, National Safety Council, again is urging business and industry to dry up the Christmas office party.

"Our figures prove," said the Council, "that the early hours of the Christmas holidays are the most dangerous. And many of these highway accidents can be traced back to the office party and its flowing bowl."

This is the third straight year the Council is asking its 500 business and industrial member concerns to take a long, hard look at their office parties and either keep the cork in the bottle or eliminate the parties.

The effort to remove high-ball hilarity from office parties is a highlight of an intensive campaign the Council is waging to hold down the year-end accident toll, traditionally the heaviest of the year.

The campaign will begin December 1 and continue through New Year's day. Its theme will be "Keep Christmas in your driving" and will be conducted throughout the nation.

The Council is seeking the active support not only of business and industry, but of religious leaders of all faiths, public officials, traffic police and civic groups in a united nation-wide effort to hold down the usual year-end surge of accidents.

The Council emphasized it has no desire to dampen the traditional Christmas spirit.

"On the contrary," it said, "we are trying to eliminate the source of highway accidents — accidents which can completely ruin Christmas for anyone they touch.

"There is no surer way to make a mockery of 'Merry Christmas' than to have an accident."

Churches and synagogues are being urged to influence their members to keep the threat of drinking drivers to a minimum over the Christmas holiday season.

"Drinking and driving," the Council pointed out, "are a lethal combination—not only at Christmas parties, but any time, anywhere.

"Let's make our holiday toast this year, 'None for the road'."

WEATHER WOES

'November Is Month Of Extreme Danger' Cautions Highway Patrol

The arrival of November triggered a special plea from California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden for that "added bit of caution so necessary during the months when weather conditions conspire to complicate the driver's task."

November is a month of extreme danger, he pointed out. "Last year, November proved to be the worst month for traffic fatalities during 1959. A total of 376 were killed.

"December was little better. In the last month of 1959, 343 persons were killed."

The pedestrian total hit its 1959 high point in November, when 88 were killed. The December figure was nearly as high, with 80 pedestrians meeting their death.

"During the last two months of 1959, a total of 719 were killed, far more than the 598 who died in an average two-month period last year.

"Adverse weather and fewer daylight hours obviously put the driver at a disadvantage. Slippery streets and inadequate visual conditions call for alert, cautions vehicle operation," he said.

"The conscientious driver also will check his windshield wipers, tires, lights and brakes to insure peak operation during these dangerous months.

"While careful driving is an attribute we can ill afford to be without in any month of the year, it takes an added measure of awareness to be a truly safe driver during winter months.

DALY CITY YOUTH REPORTED MISSING

A 16-year-old boy has been missing from his home since November 11, according to the Daly City Police Department. He is Gary E. Allard, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Allard, 671 St. Francis boulevard, Daly City. The boy's disappearance was first reported by his father when Gary failed to return home after spending the night with a friend.

A St. Ignatius student, the youth is described as 'husky,' weighs 195 pounds, has brown hair and blue eyes. He was last seen wearing a red school sweater with leather sleeves, and may be carrying his own bank book representing a balance of $290.00.

AROUND TOWN

By ROY HURLBERT

AFTER some tall talking, City Manager Ed Frank, Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy and City Engineer Bill Chapman have persuaded the national board of fire underwriters to survey Daly City next spring in an attempt to reduce local fire insurance rates.

They claim the many improvements made since the last underwriter survey should be taken into account and a lower rate authorized.

DECISION on whether Daly City's police department will recruit or appoint a new assistant chief is due next month.

Chief Roland Petrocchi feels his department needs two more lieutenants—making it three, one in charge of each shift.

Petrocchi opposes the idea of bringing another "outsider" to fill the job of "assistant chief."

Former Asst. Chief Roy McLaren, now the chief of Novato's new police force, was hired here in a move that didn't please the men in Petrocchi's ranks. They had nothing against proficient Roy except the fact they thought a man from within the department should have been promoted to the job.

TONY and RUTH Giammona of St. Francis Heights didn't mind the cost of eight pounds of spaghetti dinner last Sunday.

Their guests were members of Tony's co-champion 120-pound Westmoor basketball team. These wee Rams shared the title with Jefferson.

Coaches Mike Orlich and Rich Warne of Jeff will have to go better than 8 lbs. to match the Westmoor effort.

WHY doesn't Daly City get a site for a new city hall and other essential facilities?

The answers seem to be the cost would be prohibitive and 2) the city needs tax moneys for other basic services.

A bond election could be the answer—maybe the only one.

At any rate, Daly City's present city hall is one of the most inadequate buildings on the Peninsula.

THREE Fulbright scholars (from Ceylon, Iran and Japan) spoke at last week's Daly City Rotary Club meeting—thanks to program chairman Earl Taylor and his guest, Dr. Hugh Baker of San Francisco State College.

The most significant statement came from the Ceylon representative. He said the American ambassador to Ceylon and his staff "had little or no direct contact with the Ceylonese people, and this did not give the people of my country an opportunity to learn the true facts about America."

Senator John F. Kennedy has made similar remarks about America's diplomats.

FEW can doubt the Callan Park annexation uproar affected Supervisor Tom Callan's re-election bid.

The leathery veteran of many a skirmish lost by considerable margins in Daly City and South San Francisco—the two areas most involved in the annexation squabble.

Callan got the most votes in San Mateo, the county's largest city, but he was outballoted in county-seat Redwood City.

SHUCKS, ma, it was easy.

This was Patrolman Charles Munday's only comment to fellow DC cops after he herded a wandering steer off St. Francis Heights boulevard and back onto the Christen ranch.

Even the TV cowboys couldn't have done a better job. Munday didn't use a rope or a horse or anything else but a few shouts to return the bull to pasture.

HILLSIDE Homeowners Association, the vigorous east-of-town group, will go whole hog to help Daly City's 50th birthday celebration next year.

President John Jensen this week said his people had set aside $150 to finance one of the big events—a colorful street dance.

The city could use more enthusiasm of this nature—throughout the community.

County's Catholic Churches Set Thanksgiving Clothing Collections

Every Catholic church and Catholic school in San Mateo county will be a collecting station during Thanksgiving week for donations of clothing and kindred articles to help relieve distress in many countries.

From Sunday, Nov. 20, through Sunday, Nov. 27, wearable clothing, shoes and blankets and bedding may be left at these institutions as the initial step in getting the county's surplus clothing into the hands of sick and destitute throughout the world.

The annual Catholic Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing collection, thanks to the generosity of Americans of all faiths, brings warmth and comfort to the millions who are in real need in over 40 countires. No usable garment will be amiss in this charitable effort; those requiring clothing are residents of all degrees of temperature, from extremely cold areas to tropical heat.

"The Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing Campaign confers a double blessing upon all donors: The blessing of helping clothe the poor and help our needy brethren, and the additional blessing of putting one's house in order by gathering and disposing of surplus usable clothing, shoes and bedding, clearing clothese closets of slightly worn, little used or outgrown garments," said Reverend John T. Butler, assistant past of St. Matthew's Church in San Mateo, who was appointed by Archbishop John J. Mitty as county director of the Thanksgiving clothing collection.

"The number of destitute increased during 1960 through many catastrophies, such as the Chilean earthquake plus tidal waves, typhoons and other disasters in Morocco, the Philippines, Puerto Rico. Catholic Relief Services dispatched relief supplies to these and many other stricken or devastated countries.

"Donations from San Mateo county will be distributed directly to the needy in many lands, regardless of color, race or creed. The contributions through over 16,000 Catholic churches and school throughout the United States are sent to the salvage bureaus of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. There, clothing, etc., is sorted to meet needs of various climates, and packaged for shipment to points designated according to needs.

"The International Cooperation Administration assists in shipping the clothing and bedding to specific points where such gifts are needed. Catholic Relief Services and National Catholic Welfare Conference receive these at strategic foreign ports, and make further dispersals through priests, missionaries, nuns and lay workers —and the garments donated in San Mateo county go directly to the needy.

"Last year, San Mateo county contributed 56,505 pounds of clothing, shoes and bedding to the unfortunates overseas as its part in Thanksgiving Clothing Collection."

WHAT'S DOING

F. P. Riddle, your Telephone Manager in San Francisco

Maintaining phone lines is a never ending job! To keep phone lines ready for your calls, men in Telephone Patrol planes fly along hundreds of miles of phone cable nearly every day. They're on the lookout for construction work or other hazards that might damage underground or overhead lines. They warn anyone on the ground working near cables by dropping notes or calling to them over the plane's loudspeaker system.

Other cable patrols on foot, in trucks and snow vehicles travel along phone lines to spot hazards before they cause trouble. It seems like a lot of work, but this is the surest way to keep your telephone service ready for you, whenever you need it.

Cultivating a "telephone farm" is the unusual project of some Bell Telephone Laboratories engineers. It's an experiment with new materials for underground telephone equipment — the "plants" they've buried are pieces of wire, cable, and metals. These will be dug up periodically to see which ones are in the best condition.

The "telephone farm" will help our engineers find the best materials for a faster and less expensive way to put telephone equipment underground. And it will mean another new saving to help your telephone dollar go further.

Any housewife who has once enjoyed the convenience of a telephone on her bedside table is seldom willing to give it up. Besides saving steps, a bedroom phone lets you make calls with more privacy. Sleep's a little safer, too.

Today you can order for your bedside the beautiful new "Princess" phone. It's small, has a built-in night light, and the dial lights up for easy dialing.

Drop by or call your telephone business office to order a "Princess" extension phone for your bedroom.

27 San Mateo Council Scouting Leaders Attend 'Golden Jubilee'

Twenty-seven leaders of the San Mateo Council, Boy Scouts of America, have returned from Sacramento, where they were among 800 Scout leaders of Utah, Arizona, Hawaii, Nevada, California and southwest Wyoming, who attended the Golden Jubilee Annual Meeting of Region Twelve on November 11 and 12.

They heard Joseph A. Brunton Jr., Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, speak on "The Next 50 Years." He became a Boy Scout in 1914, attained Eagle Scout rank and became a professional Scout leader in 1927.

Heading the local delegation was Ernest N. Casados, the District Scout Executive of the San Mateo County Council's Northern District. Others from this area were: Harold Monozon, District Chairman; Rennie Thomas, District vice chairman, and William Caldwell, Northern District commissioner.

The Scout leaders took part in seven discussion groups. These dealt with: leadership training, the older boy program of exploring, extending the movement to new sponsors, commissioner service to units and sponsoring institutions, implementing the outdoor program, and district and council administration.

The San Mateo Council, whose headquarters are at 37 North B street, administers the Scout program in the Northern District. Today it is serving 1465 boys in 41 units with 400 men and women serving as volunteer leaders.

Presiding at the two-day meeting, a feature of the Golden Jubilee Year of Scouting in America, was P. Tremain Loud of San Francisco. Loud is a veteran of more than twenty years of service in Scouting, including six years as president of the San Francisco Council, and Chairman of Region Twelve Executive Committee for the past year.

Silver Antelope Awards were presented to six men who rendered distinguished service to boyhood within the region.

The third largest region among the nation's twelve, Region Twelve has 397,011 boy members and 155,817 adult leaders in 14,501 units affiliated with 54 local Boy Scout councils in California, Arizona, Utah, Nevada, Hawaii and southwest Wyoming.

WEARING OF THE GREEN

Daly City observers who have had an opportunity to glance at the hills about their city can testify to the fact that the winter season is upon us. Sporadic rains over the past three weeks have brought out the first tinges of green on the northern and western slopes of San Bruno Mountain. Last season the first downpour did not occur until late December, thus the mountain remained a summery brown through the first of the New Year.

Enchanted Hills Program Cited At PTA Meeting

Seventeenth District PTA officials met at the Health and Welfare Building, San Mateo, last Monday with President Mrs. Foriest Cunningham presiding.

Program Chairman Mrs. Del Wilson introduced Miss Nina Brandt, Director of Enchanted Hills Camp for Blind Children, who thoroughly explained all the pertinent facts concerning the operation of the Camp for Visually Handicapped Children and Adults. The highlight of the program featured a film depicting camp facilities with special emphasis on those activities involving senses other than sight. Games and other activities are adapted to make it possible for blind children to enjoy them to the fullest extent. Workshop for hobbies, outdoor theater, swimming, boating, fishing and hiking are only a few of the outlets available to enrich the spirit, mind and physical well being of the timid, frightened child, as well as the aggressive, hyperactive child. The program at Enchanted Hills is geared so that it includes both "learning" and "pleasure" for the children.

Miss Brandt has many years of experience in the program for the Blind. A native of San Francisco, she graduated from Children's Hospital as a registered nurse, joined the Army Nurse Corps as second lieutenant during World War II and spent a great deal of time at Letterman Hospital in the Presidio, becoming supervisor of the Eye Ward and assisted in establishing a rehabilitation program for blind veterans. Discharged in 1947, Miss Brandt helped to develop Recreation for the Blind which later became Enchanted Hills Camp, now grown into a year-around schedule of therapeutic activities for Blind Children in the Bay Area.

The Camp has had support from various individuals and organizations and requires further support to continue making progress and afford the opportunity for all visually handicapped regardless of race, creed or age.

44 Rockhounds Register Here

Forty-four "rockhounds" attended the opening gemstone-jewelry class session sponsored by the Department of Recreation last week. The large turnout has necessitated splitting the group into two sections.

Saturday afternoons from 1-3 will be the new time for Girl Scouts who wish to earn their merit badges. Twenty of those registered Monday night were Scouts or Scout leaders.

Many of the class members brought examples of different types of rocks as did the instructor, L. Gene Myers. Myers explained the different steps and techniques in cutting and polishing stones as well as ways of making jewelry. Class project which could be completed for Christmas gifts will be earrings, cuff links and tie clips.

Large Turnout For DC Classes In Candlemaking

Because of the large turnout for the Department of Recreation's Wednesday night Candlemaking Class, the class will be split into two sections.

The class will continue to meet on Wednesday evenings at the above site from 7:30-9:30 p.m.

TV'S EXPLORER

Take Dream Trips With World-Roving Colonel John Craig

By Mona Baker

Have you ever dreamed of diving deep into the ocean to explore the mysteries of the sea—or climbing high up on a mountain peak—or traveling to remote jungle areas? Well, one man has had all these exciting experiences and many more besides—Colonel John D. Craig, host on ABC's outstanding adventure series "Expedition" (KGO-TV, Tues. 7 p.m.)

The noted explorer held the press completely spellbound as he unraveled thrilling story after story of his true-life adventures to the four corners of the earth. (We asked him if there were any country he hadn't visited, and he said he hadn't yet been to Russia or Siberia).

Colonel Craig is just exactly what one would picture in his mind as a real "honest-to-ABC league simultaneously. To goodness" explorer. A dynamic man, possessing great physical strength, zeal, enthusiasm—he is in addition a natural television personality. His genuineness, enthusiasm and vibrant personality come right out through the television screen.

The story of his life is completely fascinating. He was the first man to dive and find the Lusitania, and was in charge of potographing the salvage operations. He discovered what is believed to be the anchor from Columbus' ship, the Santa Maria. Into 53 countries, across five continents, and under four oceans he led his motion picture crews before World War II. During the war, he was in charge of a U. S. Air Force combat camera unit in Europe.

He invented underwater cameras and record-breaking diving equipment, and is co-inventor of helium-oxygen self-contained diving apparatus currently used by world's major navies. He was the first man to make underwater movies in natural color and one of his pictures won an "Oscar."

He has been a successful platform lecturer for 15 years and has produced and appeared as host in many syndicated television series including "I Search for Adventure" and "Danger Is My Business."

The latter series was based on his book of the same title which was published in 1938 and became a Literary Guild book - of - the - month selection which has been translated into eleven foreign languages and Braille. He has also contributed articles to many periodicals including American, Cosmopolitan and Esquire.

If you are unable to take those dream trips, do plan to join Colonel Craig each week on "Expedition." If any man can make adventure come to life, he certainly can, and you'll find yourself soaring right out of your arm chair, into the sky and over continents as you explore the world with Colonel Craig.

Westmoor Choice Over Winless Jeff Here Friday

Dake, Prouty and Funai Lead Rams Against Lean, Luckless Tribe

Past records don't count this Friday afternoon when Westmoor High's Rams (2-3) and the winless Jefferson Indians (0-5) clash in the fourth annual battle between the two Daly City teams.

This next to last game of the season begins at 3 p.m. at Jefferson. Westmoor is the choice to run its edge over the Indians to 3-1.

Coach Pete Matisi's Rams, definitely in the Peninsula League title race until two weeks ago, boast two of the League's best halfbacks in Tom Dake and Walt Prouty, a good passer in junior Steve Funai, and a senior-heavy line led by guard Roger Austin, tackle Ken Magoon and end Chris Hanson.

Funai "came of age" in a losing 14-6 battle with Capuchino last week. He connected on a 15-yard scoring pass to Hanson and had 16 completions out of 21 aerials for the afternoon. The swift Cap forwards "held" Dake and Prouty to 110 net yards, but Jeff's line may not be as fortunate this Friday.

Coach Joe McGrath's Indians, however, don't have the attitude of a team that is 0-7 for the season and fighting to keep out of the basement. Last Friday the Indians played right down to the wire before dropping a hairline 12-6 thriller to unbeaten and league-leading San Mateo.

Jeff took an astonishing 6-0 lead over the invaders early in the second period thanks to a pass interception by defensive standout Sal Blas. From the SM 18, QB Bob Miller lofted a 16-yard pass to Bob Brush. The latter fumbled the ball on the 3, but alert end Gary Molossi pounced on the ball in the end zone and Jeff rooters went wild.

San Mateo retaliated just before halftime after blocking a Jeff punt. Elias Cornejo dove over from the two and the score was knotted, 6-6.

San Mateo's clinching tally came on a 16-yard pass from Jere Takahashi to Bill Poulos in the third period.

The Indians almost won the contest with 40 seconds left but Al Cascideo's pass from the Mateo 20 was intercepted by Tupper Blake.

The contest was weird throughout. Two San Mateo scoring passes were nullified—one because of clipping and the second because of interference with Jeff's defenders.

Cascideo was Jeff's big ground gainer in a surprising effort. He carried the ball 13 times and gained 61 yards. Miller completed 5 of 13 pass attempts.

McGrath, pleased in general with the work of his defensive line and backs, singled out Cascideo for his offensive showing.

Westmoor and Cap were scoreless for two periods. The Mustangs went ahead, 7-0, early in the third quarter, but on the next kickoff Funai engineered the Rams back with a six-pointer pass to Hansen. Fullback Ralph Valdez picked up his second TD of the contest in the final quarter to cap the contest for the San Brunans.

Both the Indians and Rams should be at peak physical strength for Friday's big tilt.

Westmoor on a given afternoon is as capable as any team in the league. Jeff got a lift with the big effort against San Mateo, and the Indians couldn't think of anything nicer than a decision over the Rams.

Westmoor ends the campaign next Wednesday at Mills. The Indians next Wednesday night encounter also winless South City in the north county's oldest rivalry.

JEFF HIGH's varsity footballers (the throng above) lost only by one touchdown to league-leading San Mateo last week. The Indians have high hopes for their big clash with Daly City rival Westmoor this Friday afternoon at Jeff. Westmoor is favored on the basis of its 2-3 league record compared to Jeff's 0-5. The Indians are building this year and the experience should make them a contender in 1961.

26 PRODUCTIVE YEARS

Joe Verducci Leaves Coaching Ranks With Outstanding Record

By Sam Goldman

Around 5:30 p.m. this Saturday an era in Northern California football will come to an end when San Francisco State College's head football coach, Joe Verducci, retires after 26 years on the gridiron scene.

Verducci, the dean of Northern California football coaches and one of the nation's outstanding tutors, will move into the position as the Assistant Dean of Students and continue as the college's Director of Athletics. He will keep a close tab on his "first love" by holding down a post on the important NCAA Football Rules Committee.

For the past 26 years, the 5' 5" little giant of Bay Area football has been presenting to West Coast fans some of this area's finest gridiron elevens, from the high school level to the collegiate ranks.

The departure of Verducci from the active role as a football coach will bring a tear from the eye and a gulp from the throat of thousands of football fans who have followed Verducci's football career, which began in 1934, following his graduation from the University of California.

To insure that Verducci remembers his last day as a head football coach, San Francisco State College students, faculty administration, and fans are out to grant "Little Joe" his one wish.

"All I want on November 19 is to see Cox Stadium filled to capacity." This has been Verducci's dream for the past 11 seasons, when he first took over the head coach position at San Francisco State.

At the present moment, Verducci is leading his San Francisco State gridders through another successful season. The Gators hold a 7-1 season mark and 2-1 Far Western Conference total. Their lone loss has been to unbeaten Humboldt State, 21-18, earlier this year.

In his 26 years as a football coach, Verducci has an all-time coaching record of 168 wins, 66 losses, and 14 ties for a .700 percentage. His record in the Far Western Conference is 37 wins, 6 losses for an .860 percentage. His record in ten seasons at San Francisco State College is 73 wins, 26 losses, and 1 tie for a .730 percentage. Since 1950, Verducci's San Francisco State gridders have captured the Far Western Conference championship six times in eight seasons — 1950, 1954, 1956, 1957, 1958, and 1959. In 1953 and 1955, the Gators finished in second place, while in 1951 and 1952, they were not members of the league. In 1959, Coach Joe's squad was the West's only undefeated and untied team with a 10-0 record.

During his reign as Gator head coach, Verducci has brought fame to the college, not only with his gridiron accomplishments, but in the type of persons he has trained for the future years. Today, throughout the Bay Area and California, a Verducci trained athlete is considered a "top-flight" individual whether it be in the fields of education or other endeavors. Over the past seasons, Head Coach Joe and his staff have developed stronger and more versatile teams... thus San Francisco State College football teams and players have gained national recognition and renown. Coach Joe's teams also have gained and increased the stature of the Far Western Conference to the point that the Far Western Conference teams are the most improved elevens on the coast.

Coach Joe's recognition as a coach and teacher continues to grow with the stature of his elevens. This year, Verducci received the Citation of Honor from the Football Writers Association of America "for his long and honorable career in college athletics and for his contribution to football."

In 1959, the City of San Francisco and its citizens honored Verducci at his 25th year anniversary as a coach with a mammoth banquet. In 1959, 1957, and 1948, he was voted the Northern California Football Coach of the Year by the Northern California Football Writers Association. Also, in 1957, Verducci placed second in a poll of Northern California high school coaches—after Bud Wilkinson of the University of Oklahoma — as the man who had the greatest influence on their coaching techniques.

Verducci arrived on the San Francisco State campus after a successful career as grid tutor at St. Mary's College, Moraga, California. At St. Mary's, he received the Northern California Football Writers Association awards as Coach of the Year for his outstanding work. During World War II, Verducci's United States Coast Guard elevens from Alameda competed against the strongest service and college teams in the nation. He posted an impressive 10-9-4 mark with the service unit.

A graduate of the University of California (Berkeley), class of 1934, Joe was twice the recipient of the coveted Andy Smith Memorial Scholarship Award for his inspirational leadership. Joe led the Golden Bears as the varsity quarterback under Navy Bill Ingram in the 1931-1932-1933 seasons.

Verducci coached Monterey High School, Monterey, California; Commerce High School, Washington High School, and Polytechnic High School in San Francisco. At the latter school, he gained national fame for developing fast, flashing play, and the deceptive brand of football which connotes a Verducci trained-tutored team. In his final year at Polytechnic High, Verducci guided the eleven to a 10-0 record, thus completing an amazing 55-6 ledger at the prep school.

In his "spare time," Joe is a Daly City councilman, was the mayor of Daly City from 1954 to 1957, is a prominent radio and TV personality in the Bay Area, and is a leader in the improvement of education, recreation, youth programs, and other vital Bay Area projects.

W'lake Match Game Keglers Trim Castlers

Two outstanding feats were accomplished at Westlake Bowl last week. The first was the second straight victory for the Westlake match game team. In the initial match with the L&L team last week, Westlake took it by a margin of 85 pins. This week it was a little closer. Castle went down to defeat by the slim margin of 41 pins.

The second feat was the fantastic 269 game bowled by footballer John Zamzow, 16-year-old Junior Bay Area Classic kegler. John started his game (incidentally, the game was bowled in that Castle match) with a spare, then had eight strikes in a row, a spare, then finished with another strike. This sizzler breaks the high game for the junior division at Westlake Bowl. The previous high game was set by Wayne Funai just last week as he posted a 259 game in Junior Bay Area Classic competition. John's series was a fat 572. It might be safe to say that the win over Castle Lanes was due largely to Zamzow's 269.

In the budding Junior Bay Area Classic League between Westlake Bowl and Castle Lanes, 15-year-old St. Ignatius sophomore Larry Tomassini plastered the timber for a high game of 246. This is the type of play that is characteristic of the league. Many of San Francisco's leading junior bowlers are demonstrating their skills every Monday at Westlake and Castle. Tomassini, by the way, is also the president of the Classic league.

Brownie Troop 586 Has 'Pin' Ceremony

On November 3 the members of Brownie Scout Troop 586 participated in their investiture ceremony. Troop Leader Betty Dvorsky and Assistant Leader Marjorie Milani conducted the ceremony, part of which was the presentation of a Brownie pin to each girl. On the refreshment table were decorations made by the Brownies at a previous meeting.

Wednesday evening the troop, assisted by Robin Dvorsky and Jerry Perkins of Cub Pack 343, lead the flag ceremony at the monthly Vista Mar PTA meeting.

Members of Brownie Troop 586 are Marcia Bruno, Betsy Dvorsky, Lorie Ann Elchinoff, Cathy Hochman, Sherri Matthews, Margaret Milani, Christine Picchi and Roberta Wentzel.

Bob Cowan Continues Sizzling Pace As Area's Top Teen Bowler

By Bob Sexton

If conditions at Westlake Bowl continue at the present rate, the walls of the bowling palace will swell to the breaking point. Each week the kids climb to newer and greater heights in kegling.

Currenty, the hottest thing that has hit the lanes since the Bowl has been in existence is Bob Cowan. Just a month ago Bob roared to a seldom seen 609 series. The following week he hit for a 539, 563, 559 and a tree-topping 232 game. Still not satisfied with his accomplishments, he rolled a 573 the following week. Last week Cowan shot a 559 with a 216 high game. There seems to be no end to this lad's ability.

Many of the regular customers of the Westlake Bowl are of the opinion that not even the great Don Carter would attract the attention that these juniors get when they start on a bowling rampage.

One of the big accomplishments of the weekend for the juniors of Westlake was the victory over the Castle Lanes match-game team, the Kingpins. This marks the second straight victory over the Kingpins for the Westlakers. The results were pretty impressive.

* * *

Without a doubt the Gal Bowler of the Week at Westlake is Sharon Sylvester. In a match with a mixed team from Kings and Brentwood Bowl she topped the field with an all-time Bowl high for Westlake as she shot games of 205-168-181 for a whopping 554 series. The previous high series for the girls' division was a 514 held by Pat Marks.

Touch-Footballers

The Department of Recreation's touch football leagues have been extended one week due to the cancellation of last Saturday's games.

All the games scheduled Saturday will be played this Saturday at the same place and time.

Steve Zegura Takes Weekly Bowl Laurels

Steve Zegura took bowling honors at Westlake last week with a red hot 237-213-220-660 series to lead the men, while Tee Rolling was rolling high for the ladies with a 184-162-241-587 series.

McDougal Press in the Westlake 875 classic showed the way with a 1027 game and a 2755 series.

Ron McClain is leading the house championship with a qualifying round of 1093 followed by Dick Birkett with a 1074.

Helen Benaderet of the Kewpie Quads missed a stepladder series when she bowled games of 116-113-114, while Mary Lawson had a close miss with 167-168-168 games.

Ruth Koeffee of the St. Thomas more league scattered the pins for a 205 while Mary Dowd, Pat's Mobil Service team member, scored a 226.

Pat Hunter of the Thelendo team converted the 6-7-10 split handily.

High man for the Father-Son's league was Pat Tobin with a 205. The sons showed their dads how it is done, spearheaded by Peter Pollat's 195-190-190-575.
